

School District Report Card Rating

Table 1. Franklin County Public School Districts Performance Accountability Results, 2008–2011

School District	Enrollment	2009-10 Performance Standards Met (out of 26)	2010-2011 Rating	2009-2010 Rating	2008-2009 Rating
Bexley City	2,130	26	Excellence with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction
Dublin City	13,614	26	Excellence with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction
Grandview Heights City	1,092	26	Excellence with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction
Hilliard City	14,945	26	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction
New Albany-Plain Local	4,191	26	Excellent	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction
Upper Arlington City	5,542	26	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction
Worthington City	9,098	26	Excellent	Excellent	Excellent with Distinction
Gahanna-Jefferson City	7,028	26	Excellence with Distinction	Excellent	Effective
Westerville City	14,105	26	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent with Distinction	Excellent
Reynoldsburg City	5,811	26	Excellent	Effective	Excellent
Canal Winchester Local	3,446	24	Excellence with Distinction	Effective	Excellent
Hamilton Local	3,005	21	Effective	Excellent	Excellent
South-Western City	19,336	18	Excellent	Excellent	Continuous Improvement
Groveport Madison Local	5,746	13	Excellent	Effective	Effective
Whitehall City	2,818	11	Continuous Improvement	Continuous Improvement	Academic Watch
Columbus City	49,616	5	Continuous Improvement	Continuous Improvement	Continuous Improvement

- In the 2010-2011 school year, a large number of Franklin County students (61,902) were in school districts with an Excellent with Distinction rating. This comprised 38.3% of the county's students.
- Two of the 16 Franklin County school districts (New Albany-Plain Local and Hamilton Local) moved down in their performance results between the 2009-2010 and 2010-2011 school years, whereas three (Gahanna-Jefferson City, Canal Winchester Local, and Groveport Madison Local) improved their ratings. Whitehall City and Columbus City School districts maintained their Continuous Improvement rating.

Chart 1. Student Enrollment by School District Performance, Franklin County and Ohio, 2010–2011

- The majority of 2010–2011 Franklin County students (65.7%) were enrolled in school districts that had an Excellent with Distinction or Excellent rating in the 2009–2010 school year.

About the Data

Data Sources:

- Ohio Department of Education, Interactive Local Report Card

Definitions:

- Performance: In 2009–2010, the Ohio Department of Education applied 26 state indicators and continued to use the following measures to look at the performance of schools and districts: a performance index (PI), a performance index growth calculation, and the federal Adequate Yearly Progress (AYP) requirements.
- Enrollment: For 2009–2010, enrollment is defined as the average daily enrollment reported by a school district.
- 2009–2010 State of Ohio performance rating categories: The performance ratings for school districts in Ohio depend on the following factors:
 - Performance index score: a calculation of students’ performance on state tests
 - Improvements in the performance index score over two years
 - Federal No Child Left Behind goals for improvement on reading and math tests
- 26 state performance standards: Fourteen of the standards involve passage rates for the achievement tests for grades three through eight. Ten standards involve passage of the five sections of the Ohio Graduation Test in grades 10 and 11. The other two standards are for student attendance rates and graduation rates.

Update Status:

October 2011